

MEMBERSHIP BENEFIT: Business Health Care Group (BHCG)

As part of its commitment to address issues of concern and offer members an array of options to help their businesses, the Granville-Brown Deer Chamber of Commerce has joined the Business Health Care Group (BHCG) as a sponsoring member organization. Because of this relationship, Chamber members are eligible to become Associate Members of BHCG and:

- 1) Be part of the Southeast Wisconsin business community's collective effort to develop a market-driven health care delivery system, a long-term strategy to control costs and improve efficiency and effectiveness of health care in our area.
- 2) Have access to the BHCG's exclusive health benefit plan that is designed to reduce health care costs by consolidating purchasing through a high performance provider network. It is available with a variety of benefit options administered by Humana. (Eligible savings will depend on your current carrier)

HOW IT WORKS:

- Chamber members are invited to join BHCG at a discounted rate through our role as a sponsoring organization.
 - ✓ BHCG's joining fee is waived, so Chamber members may join for annual membership fees of $9.00 per eligible employee for 2007.
 - ✓ Companies must join BHCG to participate in its exclusive health plan.
- Our Chamber representative, Gary Mohn, will participate in BHCG activities and update members regularly on progress and participation opportunities.

TO JOIN BHCG:

- 1) Obtain a Chamber-specific BHCG membership application form from the Chamber. This provides verification that you are a member of the Granville-Brown Deer Chamber and are entitled to the sponsoring-organization discount.
- 2) Work with your insurance broker to apply and enroll employees for the BHCG/Humana benefit plan(s) of your choice. If you do not have an insurance broker, you may work through Dave Scurek of Associated Financial Group.
